Land area under cantonments

3545. SHRI SOM PAL:
DR. NAUNIHAL SINGH:

Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state:

(a) what is the total land area under cantonments in our country;

(b) what is the cantonment-wise break-up of these lands;

(c) what is percentage utilisation of such lands and break-up of land use for various purposes;

(d) whether there are any plans for better utilisation of cantonment lands; and

(e) if so what are the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF DEFENCE (SHRI SHARAD PAWAR): (a) to (e) The total area of the 62 Cantonments in the country is 1,90,534 acres. The Cantonment-wise details of land are given in the Statement (See below)

The land use in Cantonments is governed by various Defence requirements such as training, workshops, ranges, married accommodation etc. as reflected in the Zonal Plans and Master Plans of Cantonments. The Defence lands in Cantonment areas are either placed under the management of Armed Forces or are under the management of Defence Estate Officers in respect of lands reserved for future use. Lands required for municipal purposes are vested in Cantonment Boards.

Defence lands not required by the Armed Forces for immediate purposes may also be leased out to ex-Servicemen for agricultural purposes or to public institutions.

The land use pattern of the Cantonments is reviewed for optimal use from time to time, keeping in view the present and future military requirements.
